With City Sightseeing you can enjoy the major attractions of Turin comfortably seated on the red panoramic bus, which will take you to discover the most remote corners of the Piedmontese city.

City Sightseeing Turin offers several itineraries: the first is the classic one of the RED Line, thanks to which you can be fascinated by the city center and the main museums as well as the hill overlooking the Po with the Valentino Park, Borgo and Medieval Fortress.

Added to this is the Linea BLU tour, an itinerary to reach places of unexplored charm and discover the other side of the city: the renovated Automobile Museum, the Lingotto with the Pinacoteca Agnelli, Eataly and the Olympic sites.

In addition, the GREEN Line route will allow you to discover the Lavazza Museum, the Parco Dora district, an emblem of urban regeneration and explore the Allianz Stadium & Juventus Museum and the Reggia di Venaria Reale, an architectural and natural masterpiece, on the outskirts of Turin.

In the period April-October it is possible to purchase fares valid 24h, 48h or 72h which include the three Red, Blue and Green Lines.

In the period November-March , only the Red Line is in service with a dedicated 24/48h rate.

Plus, with our Skip The Line tickets you can immerse yourself in the city's culture without waiting in the endless queues at the entrance to major museums. Whatever your idea of a holiday in Turin, City Sightseeing has the ticket for you. Choose and book it now with a simple click!
